

FACT SHEET

EUCALYPTUS MANNIFERA |

'BRITTLE GUM, RED SPOTTED GUM'

---

CITYWIDE

shaping sustainable landscapes

- Origin: New South Wales tablelands to the foothills of north eastern Victoria.
- Habit: Small to medium-sized evergreen tree. Narrow domed though form varies. A fast growing species, mature dimensions attained range between 8-15m high in 15 years
- Description: Leaves a dull bluish-green. Bark smooth, yellow or pale orange, becoming white and powdery with red patches, White flowers appear October to December.
- Tolerances: An adaptable species. High drought and frost tolerance. Susceptible to sap sucking and foliar feeding insects.
- Notes: Requires pruning to raise the canopy. An ornamental tree that is well suited to planting in urban situations.

References: Brooker, M.I.H., and Kleinig, D. A., 1990, A field guide to eucalypts, volume 1, Inkata Press, Australia. Costermans, L, 1994, Native trees and shrubs of south-eastern Australia, Reed New Holland, Australia.